L.A.S.D. File No.: 001-01791-0372-055

The Justice System Integrity Division of the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office has completed its review of the February 12, 2001 fatal shooting of Robert Eugene Jones, Jr., by Los Angeles Sheriff's Deputies Daniel Leon and Joey Stoker. This office conducted a review of your department's investigation package, which consisted of reports, logs, photographs, videotape, and interview statements of witnesses. The District Attorney's Command Post was notified of this shooting at 7:50 a.m. on February 12, 2001. District Attorney Senior Investigator and Deputy District Attorney Charles Clay responded to the shooting scene shortly thereafter and were given a briefing and a walk-through of the scene. Upon concluding its review, this office has determined that the actions of Deputies Leon and Stoker were lawful acts in self-defense and defense of others.

FACTUAL ANALYSIS

On February 11, 2001 at approximately 7:25 a.m., Los Angeles Sheriff's Deputies Daniel Leon and Joey Stoker were driving a marked Sheriff's patrol unit northbound on Western Avenue north of 103rd Street. The deputies observed Jones walking southbound along the east sidewalk. Deputy Stoker recognized Jones from prior contacts. Deputy Leon stopped the unit and the deputies spoke with Jones. During the detention, Jones handed Leon a glass tube commonly used to smoke crack cocaine. The deputies detained Jones for further investigation, placed him into the rear of their

Patrol car, and asked him to remove his socks and shoes to check for narcotics. Deputy Leon saw several off-white rock-like objects resembling rock cocaine in one of Jones's shoes. Suddenly, Jones lunged and pushed Deputy Leon out of his way and ran south on Western Avenue. Deputy Leon gave chase, while Deputy Stoker followed in the patrol car.

Jones ran into the open front door of the Anand Motel at Western Avenue, through a hallway, and into an alcove of the rear parking lot where he fell after tripping on a rug in the lobby. Deputy Leon got on top of Jones, who began to fight with him. Deputy Leon first hit Jones with his flashlight, but then dropped it. Deputy Leon ordered Jones to stop struggling, and when Jones refused to comply, sprayed him with a burst of oleoresin capsicum spray in an attempt to disable him. The O.C. spray had no effect on Jones, who continued to fight. The area in which the two were fighting was located between the south exterior wall of the alcove and the driver's side of a parked Honda Civic, approximately 18 to 24 inches in width.

Deputy Leon removed his 9-millimeter service pistol and held it in his right hand, extended away from Jones, who asked him, "Do you think you're going to shoot me?" Deputy Leon began to feel the effects of the oleoresin capsicum spray and the exhaustion of chasing and fighting with Jones. He began to "fade out" and lost control of his gun to Jones. Believing that Jones was going to kill him with his own gun, Deputy Leon reached into his attribute to the sack-up and fired one round at Jones.

Meanwhile, Deputy Stoker drove around to the alley behind the property in an attempt to cut off Jones's escape. As Deputy Stoker stopped the car, he saw Jones and Deputy Leon fighting for control of "a black object." Jones ultimately gained control of the object and took it from Deputy Leon. Deputy Stoker heard a gunshot as he ran from his patrol unit to assist Leon. According to Deputy Stoker, Jones still had control of the "black object" in his left hand and was lifting it up. Deputy Stoker did not yet know whether Deputy Leon or Jones had been shot. In fear for his partner's life Deputy Stoker fired two shots at Jones.

Paramedics were summoned and Jones was treated at the scene for multiple gunshot wounds. He was transported to Martin Luther King, Jr. Hospital, where he was pronounced dead at 8:06 a.m.

was present when the deputies recovered the cocaine pipe from Jones and directed him to sit in the back of the patrol unit. As walked west across Western Avenue to leave the area, Jones was seated in the back of the patrol unit. It then saw one of the deputies chasing Jones south along Western Avenue and into the Anand Motel. He noticed that Jones was now barefoot, and that the other deputy was in the patrol vehicle.

was a state at the motel and was in the room adjacent to the alcove where the fight and shooting took place. She described hearing noises like people fighting outside, and a noise that sounded like something had been thrown against the building. She told investigators that she looked out of a north-facing window and saw a man lying on the ground who she believed had been shot, and two deputies standing nearby. From her vantage point she could only see the man's body, and could not see if he had anything near him or what he was doing. She estimated that she heard two gunshots approximately 20 seconds after she heard the thud against the wall.

shared the room with and he told investigators that he also heard fighting outside. After a moment he got out of bed and heard a gunshot as he walked to the door. He opened the door and as he stepped out was told by a deputy to go back into the room and shut the door. heard the deputy say something to the effect of, "He's moving or something," and as shut the door he heard two more shots. Then went to the north window where was wastching. He saw a man lying on the ground with blood pooling nearby.

Sergeant Albert Ortiz arrived moments after the shooting and observed Jones lying on the ground next to the Honda with a gun and a pepper spray canister on the ground between Jones and the alcove wall. Sergeant Ortiz also noticed that Leon's uniform shirt, pants, and boots bore abrasions and stucco powder, and that Leon's nameplate was hanging from his shirt. It should be noted that the Anand Motel building has a stucco exterior.

Deputy Medical Examiner Irwin L. Golden, M.D., performed an autopsy on the body of Robert Jones, Jr., on February 14, 2001. He attributed the cause of death to multiple gunshot wounds. Jones suffered a total of three penetrating gunshot wounds to the head, each of which was immediately life-threatening and, ultimately, fatal. One bullet struck Jones on the left side of the bridge of his nose and continued toward the back of his skull on a horizontal plane. This is consistent with the shot fired by Deputy Leon. The other two bullets struck Jones on the left front and right rear of the top of his head in left to right and downward trajectories. These two wounds are consistent with Jones lying supine on the ground when shot by Deputy Stoker. All three bullets were recovered and subsequent examination established that one bullet was fired from Deputy Leon's .38 caliber revolver and two were fired from Deputy Stoker's nine-millimeter Beretta pistol. A toxicological analysis of Jones's post-mortem blood was positive for barbiturates, cocaine, and cocaine base.

A chemical analysis of the four off-white rock-like substances Deputy Leon identified as those he saw fall from Jones's socks established a combined weight of .28 grams of solid substances containing cocaine in the base form. A latent fingerprint analysis of Deputy Leon's service pistol, magazine, and bullets was negative for fingerprints.

CONCLUSION

California Law permits the use of deadly force in self-defense or in the defense of another if it reasonably appears to the person claiming the right of self-defense or the defense of another that he actually and reasonably believed that he was in imminent danger of great bodily injury or death. People v. Williams (1977) 75 Cal. App. 3d 731.

In protecting himself or another, a person may use all force and means that he believes to be reasonably necessary and that would appear to a reasonable person in the same or similar circumstances to be necessary to prevent the injury that appears to be imminent. California Jury Instructions 5.30 and 5.32.

If one is confronted by the appearance of danger that one believes, and a reasonable person in the same position would believe, would result in death or great bodily injury, one may act upon those circumstances. Actual danger is not necessary to justify the use of deadly force in self-defense. The right of self-defense is the same whether the danger is real or merely apparent. People v. Toledo (1948) 85 Cal. App. 2d 577.

While detaining Robert Eugene Jones, Jr., Deputies Leon and Stoker discovered several rocks later found to contain base cocaine in one of his socks. Rather than peacefully submit to arrest, Jones pushed past Deputy Leon and ran into a nearby motel. While struggling with Deputy Leon in the parking lot, Jones was able to gain control of Leon's loaded nine-millimeter handgun. Given Jones's flight and violent struggle, Deputy Leon had every reason to fear for his life, especially in light of the effect the oleoresin capsicum spray was having on him.

It is the conclusion of this office that Deputy Leon was legally justified in using deadly force in self-defense. We have also concluded that Deputy Stoker was legally justified in directing deadly force at Jones, both in self-defense and in defense of Deputy Leon. While Jones may have been injured from the round fired by Deputy Leon, it is not unreasonable to believe that he still posed a danger to both deputies.

Having concluded that both deputies acted lawfully in self-defense or in defense of others, we are closing our file and will take no further action in this matter.

Very truly yours,

STEVE COOLEY

INVOLVED EMPLOYEES STATEMENTS:

Deputy Daniel Leon

Deputy Leon said on the day this incident occurred, he was working uniformed patrol in Unit 31D, Day Shift, with his partner and Deputy Joey Stoker. He said he was the driver and Deputy Stoker was the bookman. They were driving northbound on Western Ave. when he saw the suspect, who he recognized from previous contacts, walking northbound on the east sidewalk of Western Ave. He drove the patrol car next to the suspect and engaged him in conversation about his arrest status. While he was talking to the suspect, he asked him if he had anything illegal on him. When the suspect told him he had a "pipe," he stopped the patrol car and exited to ask the suspect additional questions.

Upon contacting the suspect on the sidewalk, he conducted a "pat down" search of the suspect for weapons. During the search he felt a pipe in the suspect's right front jacket pocket which he retrieved and gave to Deputy Stoker. He directed the suspect to sit in the rear seat of the patrol car and remove his shoes and socks in order to continue his search for illegal narcotics. When the suspect removed his socks, he saw some white pieces of cocaine drop to the ground which he bent down to retrieve. As he retrieved the cocaine, the suspect pushed him and ran southbound Western Ave., towards 103^{rd} St.

Deputy Leon chased the suspect on foot and when the suspect reached the motel entrance, he saw the suspect turn eastbound and run into the motel lobby. The suspect tripped on some rugs in the lobby and "spilled" out into the motel parking lot at the rear of the location. He got on top of the suspect and told him to put his hands behind his behind his back; however, the suspect continued punching and kicking him in his upper torso. He also experienced very sore thighs and knees indicating the suspect struck him in that area also. He struck the suspect with his flashlight one time and then lost control of the flashlight. He did not know where his flashlight was, but he did know that he did not want the suspect to find it and assault him with it. The struggle continued between the wall of the motel and a vehicle that was parked near the rear door, (refer Exhibit E), despite his commands to the suspect to stop his assault.

Deputy Leon told the suspect many times to stop his assault, but he was ignored and the struggle continued with the suspect punching and kicking him. At this point, he used his O.C. spray to gain control of the suspect; however, the spray had no effect. He said after using the spray he felt the suspect tugging on his gun belt and his holster moving. He removed his Beretta and held it at arms length from the suspect in his right hand, and again told the suspect to stop fighting. The suspect looked at him and said "do you think you're going to shoot me." The suspect then grabbed the front portion of the gun and the struggle centered around control of the weapon.

Deputy Leon claimed at this point the O.C. spray began to effect him (Leon) and he started to have trouble breathing. The light became blurry and he was exhausted from the chase and struggle. He started to "fade out" and realized the suspect now had control of his gun. He believed that the suspect was going to kill him with his own gun. Having lost control of his duty weapon, he drew his back-up weapon from his and shot the suspect one time.

After he shot the suspect, he stood and put his back-up weapon into his right hand. At this time his partner, Deputy Stoker, arrived and said to him "dude, he's still moving, get away." He ran northeast around a vehicle that was parked next to the suspect in order to get away from the danger. As he ran around the vehicle he heard two shots. Assistance was requested and within a few minutes, assisting units began to arrive.

Deputy Joey Stoker

Deputy Stoker reported that on the night this incident occurred, he was working uniformed patrol in Unit 31D, Day Shift, with his partner, Deputy Daniel Leon. He was the bookman and Deputy Leon was driving. As Deputy Leon's he wanted to locate a person who was under the influence of narcotics so he could evaluate Deputy Leon's writing style for that type of arrest. They were traveling northbound Western Ave. when he saw the suspect standing on the east sidewalk of Western Ave. The suspect was looking over his shoulders and appeared "nervous."

Deputy Leon slowed down and the suspect looked in their direction. As they pulled to the curb and engaged the suspect in conversation through the open passenger window. He recognized the suspect as an individual they had arrested the previous week for a narcotics violation; possession of a cocaine pipe. The suspect was told they wanted to talk with him and he and Deputy Leon exited their patrol vehicle.

As they approached the suspect, Deputy Leon asked the suspect if he had anything illegal on him. The suspect replied "yeah, I have a pipe." There was another male Black adult (Witness standing near the suspect and he directed his attention away from the suspect while Deputy Leon dealt with the suspect. He determined that the male Black was known to him and worked at a local motel, at which time he turned his attention back to Deputy Leon and the suspect. Deputy Leon took hold of the suspect's arm and handed him (Stoker) a glass cocaine pipe which he placed in his jacket pocket. Deputy Leon told the suspect they were detaining him for a narcotics investigation and conducted a pat down search of the suspect.

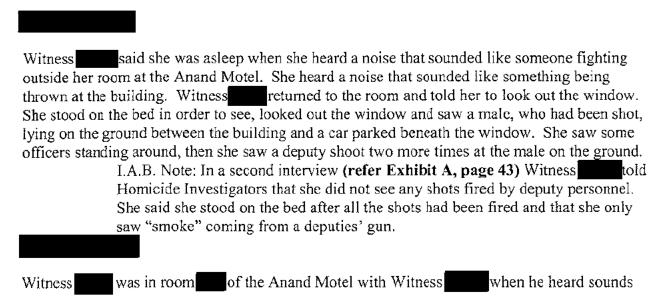

After the suspect had been searched, Deputy Leon opened the rear door of their radio car and told the suspect to sit down, "we're going to checkout your shoes." The suspect was "co-op" and began to take off his shoes. Deputy Leon told the suspect to remove his socks also, at which time he (Stoker) walked away momentarily to store the glass pipe in a narcotics bag in the trunk of their car. He leaned into the passenger side front door to release the trunk; however, the trunk release was located on the left side of the steering column causing him to reach across the entire width of the vehicle to open the trunk.

When he reached across the car, he heard something, looked up and saw Deputy Leon chasing the suspect southbound on Western Ave. He attempted to broadcast emergent radio traffic on his handheld radio; however, his shirt microphone had fallen from his shirt. He was going to set up a containment and ran to the drivers side in order to drive the car to a position of advantage. At this point, he could still see Deputy Leon in foot pursuit of the suspect and made a u-turn to drive southbound on Western Ave. He drove to eastbound 103rd St. and then northbound in the alley east of Western Ave. where he saw Deputy Leon and the suspect fighting on the ground, between a wall and a parked vehicle in a parking lot, Deputy Leon was on top of and straddling the suspect. He stopped the vehicle and ran to assist Deputy Leon.

As he was running towards Deputy Leon he saw that they were fighting over a "black object," which was in both their hands. He then heard a gunshot and continued running towards Deputy Leon's position. As he ran he saw a male Black (Witness , standing in a motel room doorway southeast of where the fight was taking place. He pushed the male back into the room and ended up at the suspect's head. The suspect was still moving and his left hand was moving upward with the black object, which he believed to be a gun, still in his hand. He did not know if Deputy Leon was shot or if the suspect had been shot, but feared that the suspect was going to shoot Deputy Leon, therefore, he shot the suspect two times.

Deputy Stoker yelled at Deputy Leon to get away, because the suspect still had possession of the gun. He again saw the male Black (Witness) who was now standing outside his room. He pushed the male inside the room and saw a female Black (Witness) standing on the bed inside the room. He told the male and female that the suspect had a gun, to which the female replied "we didn't see anything." He requested assistance and a short time later heard sirens in the distance. After the first unit arrived and took over the situation, he and Deputy Leon backed out of the immediate area to await the arrival of a supervisor.
